Summer entertaining at KENT HOUSE KNIGHTSBRIDGE

What could be more quintessentially English than a summer party at a historic townhouse with Royal heritage, located in Knightsbridge?

Positioned on the edge of Hyde Park, Kent House Knightsbridge is a stylish townhouse where Queen Victoria's father, Prince Edward, installed his mistress for secret rendezvous. Now available for exclusive hire the venue features two terrace spaces and a range of flexible internal spaces with floor to ceiling windows and a beautiful sweeping staircase and atrium allowing the summer light to flood in.

Whether it's a stylish corporate soiree or a laidback BBQ, our two new terraces are the perfect spaces for corporate and private functions including drinks receptions and networking events. Light, ornate and elegant our private townhouse brings a glamorous and prestigious backdrop to your summer events.

With a capacity of up to 300 across indoor and outdoor areas this sophisticated venue has plenty of space to accommodate all your guests.

Packages include exclusive hire of our townhouse with 2 floors of event spaces and 2 outdoor terraces, Prosecco/Pimms followed by beer, wine and soft drinks (4 hour package), 2 course BBQ, uplighting & lanterns throughout the venue, PA & Radio mics for background music and speeches, event planning, staffing and security.
